KORUNDI HOUSE OF CULTURE is a space for people and the arts in Rovaniemi. It is home to the Rovaniemi Art Museum and the Lapland Chamber Orchestra, where the world opens up from a northern perspective. At Korundi, artists and audiences, everyday life and celebration, history and the present all come together.

Korundi is a cornerstone of culture in Lapland. Originally a postal bus depot that survived the Second World War, it now carries its message through art. This red-brick landmark is an elegant wedding venue where first-class arrangements and service ensure memorable moments. The inspiring presence of art and music, together with its central city location, makes it a distinctive setting for wedding ceremonies and celebrations.

Korundi's wedding menus combine ingredients with warm spices from around the world. The menus are suitable for all guests, as the most common special dietary requirements are already taken into account during the planning stage.
